

INTERNATIONAL POLITICS

This course is a continuation of the historical process of world politics. It aims to dig into the analysis of world politics by analysing in detail the main issues, problems and trends .

Assesment:

Presentation: %15

Midterm : %35

Final: %50

Week 1: Introduction (20 September)

Week 2: Environmental Politics (27-29 September)

Week 3: Terrorism (4-6 October)

Week 4: Nuclear Proliferation (11-13 October)

Week 5: Nationalism (18-20 October)

Week 6: Culture in human affairs (25-27 October)

Week 7: Regionalism (1-3 November)

Week 8: midterm week (8-10 November)

Week 9: European integration (15-17 November)

Week 10: Turkey-EU relations (22-24 November)

Week 10: Poverty, development and hunger (29-1 December)

Week 11: Human security (6-8 December)

Week 12: Peace and crisis solutions Week 12: Migration (13-15 December)

Week 13: Migration (20-22 December)

Week 14: Migration (27-29 December)