On 23 March 2008, passed the English Interuniversity Board Foreign Language Examination (ÜDS) in the field of social sciences with 93,750/100.

Apr 2005 Università degli Studi di Napoli "l'Orientale", Naples (Italy)

Obtained a PhD with a thesis (in Italian) on the Islamist political thought in the Ottoman Empire and the Republic of Turkey since 1909 to 1925. The research mainly focused on four intellectuals (Said Halim Pasa, Musa Kazım, Mehmed Âkif Ersoy and Seyyid Bey) and their political understanding with an analysis of their influence on the deep revolution undergoing in Turkey at that time, their influence on Islamist thought in the broader Middle East and contemporary Islamist thought. Worked on Ottoman and Turkish printed materials mostly in the UK (from February to October 2002, and again between July and August 2003) and Turkey (from October 2003 to April 2004). The PhD was financed and supervised by the Asian Studies Department – and the tutor was Professor Alberto Ventura (then Head of department, and professor of Islamic Studies). A revised version of chapter 6 of the thesis was published on Middle Eastern Studies in March 2008 and chapter 3 on İslâm Araştırmaları Dergisi/Turkish Journal of Islamic Studies in June 2009.

Oct 2001 Istituto Universitario Orientale, Naples (Italy)

Scholarship for one-year postgraduate studies abroad from the Faculty of Political Sciences that covered the MA at SOAS.

Sep 2002 School of Oriental and African Studies, London (United Kingdom)

Master in Turkish Studies. The major was Government and Politics of Turkey; the two minor were Ottoman Language and The History of the Ottoman Empire and Modern Turkey. The title of the dissertation was: 'Turgut Özal and Islamism in Turkey (1983-1993)' under the supervision of Professor William Hale. The dissertation aimed to understand the influence of Özal's religious beliefs on his politics. The research was conducted in London and Istanbul with the study of publications and with interviews. A shorter version was reproduced on Hamdard Islamicus in July 2005. The final result was: merit.

Jul 2001 IELTS, University of Westminster, London (United Kingdom)

Passed the International English Language Testing System exam at the University of Westminster (London). The overall band was 7.0/9.0.

Apr-Jun 2001 Contemporary International Studies, London (United Kingdom)
